God chose the tribes of Israel. Time for him to choose other tribes

Purpose of man's creation

Previously, the angels asked God: why did he create man, a source of much evil? Look at the amount of violence committed by man throughout his history? God told them that the purpose of Man's creation was knowledge, and thus discovering infinite attributes of God through infinite gradual evolution through the infinite multiverses. The monks at Shambala Tibet - or wherever - have wasted thousands of years writing down new and yet undiscovered attributes of God/YHVVH/Allah/Brahman/Zeus/Jupiter/Bhagvaan/Om/Kun/Ayin Sophia

God chose the tribes of Israel because they were the most oppressed, despised, hated, mocked, made fun of, looked down upon, felt inferior to other races.

So God chose them and excelled them even unto now.

I notice that there are many races of the world that are being treated the same way. Racism is pretty common.

White people are considered the greatest race on earth. Then comes the Asians.

Races like Shudra Indians (aborigines), africans, australian aborigines, brown muslims, mexicans, the south americans, and many others are despised and hated and looked down upon by the elite white people. Heck, white people even look down upon the chinese.

If God exists, he should save the oppressed races of the world by drowning or destroying the white race, and any other race who think they are superior.

Time for God to choose aborigines, the pygmies, the shudras, the east asians, the pakis, the niggers, and make them his chosen people.

Message of God to Africans

The words of God revealed to his servant
for the people of America for them to read and ponder over and weep
the dominant ones are racist they think they are special they look down upon people of other races especially the african americans rejected and despised they are currently much like how the Israelites were in Egypt but fear not! God has listened to their cries!
They are God's chosen people now!
From them will come their prophet their deliverer
who will change the course of American history
He will deliver them from the evil prisoner convicts from Britain
All the evil people of that continent will be destroyed by God in various ways they cannot even imagine perhaps they will drown like the Pharaoh's army their judgment comes nearer and nearer and hell for them becomes clearer
Now they can mock this message all they want
Many prophets were mocked before
Until what they were promised overtook them
To my african people

Search for your prophet among you who will be born very soon or is already among you Sooner or later he will emerge and make you people happy again
No, Obama is not it.

There should be instant karma in this universe

Imagine if you are a fully functioning human being. You see a disabled person or a down syndromed kid. People are making fun of that person (like they do nowadays online and sometimes even real life). You decide to join in the 'fun'. What happens next? All of those who were making fun of the disabled person/down syndromed person become down syndromed/disabled including yourself. Instant Karma! And that person who was being mocked becomes fully functioning. Ideally, this is how the universe should be operating. God, please take note.

If God/YHVH/Allah can create Dunya/Material World, then Akhira/Afterlife, why just two worlds? It says in the Koran that He is Lord of the Worlds. WORLDS. Means many worlds.

What if Allah/God/YHVH has created Post-Akhira world, then Meta-Akhira world, then Post postAkhira world? Pre-Dunya? Post-Dunya? Post-Hell?

Hey @realDonaldTrump convert to Islam or i will start Post-Christianity religion

It is said that when a nation is to be destroyed by God, it is given all the resources

Which means, countries like USA Japan and others are all marked for destruction

Angel Gabriel was once sent to a nation to be destroyed. They had so much technology and infinite knowledge that they recognized him immediately.

Japan, for example, is extremely advanced. Tsunamis and Volcanic activity will render it utterly destructed.

San Andreas Fault. Yellowstone. New York (Mystery Babylon whore harlot)

All of the evidences are in front of people, yet they are heedless even though they claim to be very knowledgeable.

Hypothetical muslim Iblis/Satan was/is an idiot

He said to God that he won't bow down before Adam because he is made of clay/sand/silicon chips and he is made of blue flame (see Vishnu/Shiva hindu gods).

Even if he felt that way, he could have avoided hypothetical hell by saying these two other things instead:

1) 'I will NOT bow down before anyone except you, oh God!'

2) 'Right now i am not in a mood. My ego prevents me from bowing down'

This way, he could have avoided hell.

All hypothetical of course, if the quranic story is true.
